Property Summary

If you're looking for a home that offers space, natural light, storage, and flexibility, Periwinkle Close could be the perfect fit. With its bright open-plan kitchen/diner, private driveway, garage/workshop, and a rare side-access layout that brings in extra light, this is a property designed to support both your everyday routines and your future plans.

Property Description

Inside, the layout flows beautifully. The kitchen/diner runs the full width of the rear of the home, with double doors leading out to a well-kept garden — a mix of lawn and paved space ideal for relaxing, entertaining, or watching little ones play. At the front, the lounge is warm and inviting, and thanks to the side-entry design, enjoys additional natural light from a second window, giving the room a bright, spacious feel.

Upstairs, you'll find two generous double bedrooms, both with built-in storage, plus a well-sized third bedroom and a clean, modern family bathroom. The neutral décor throughout gives you the freedom to move straight in and gradually make it your own.

To the rear, the detached garage offers excellent flexibility — currently used for storage, but with power already installed it is equally suited to becoming a workshop or even a home office (subject to permissions) not to mention that the garage is still suitable for parking your car with no changes needed. There's also off-street parking at the front, providing welcome convenience in this peaceful and well-connected part of town.

Periwinkle Close is a home you can truly grow into — with the space, comfort and practicality to support your next chapter.

About The Area

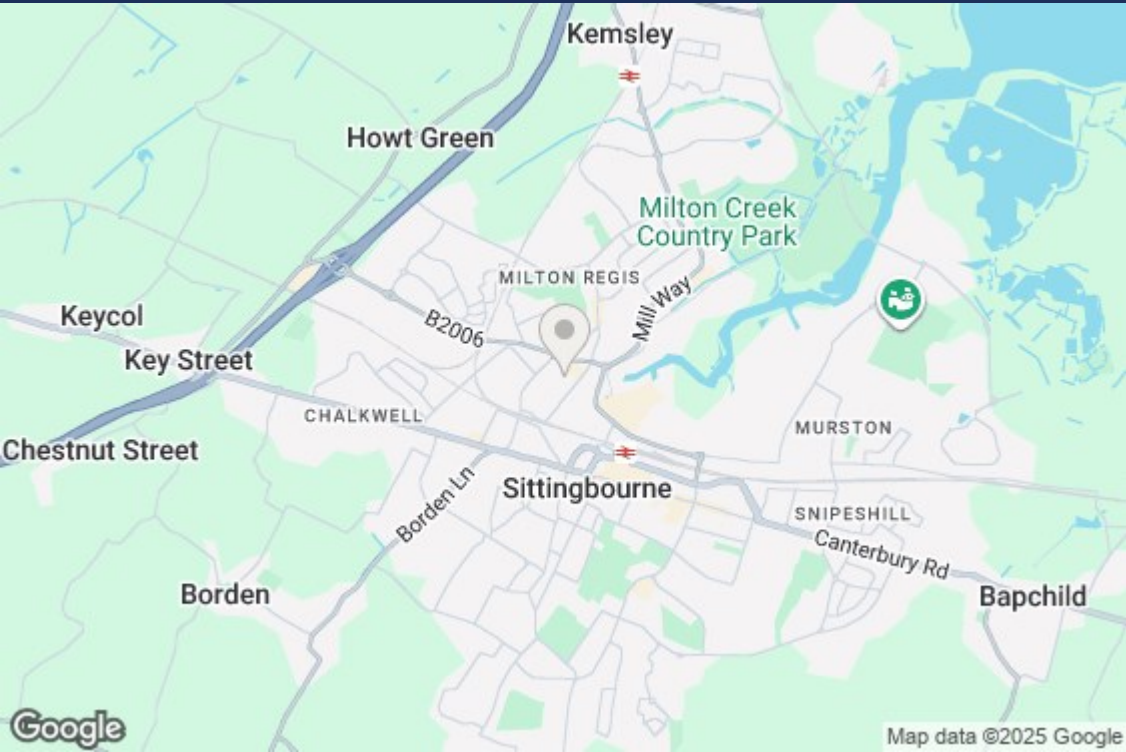

Periwinkle Close sits within a quiet residential pocket of Sittingbourne that continues to be a favourite with families and those taking the next confident step on the property ladder. The area strikes a great balance — it's peaceful and well-established, yet conveniently close to everything you need day-to-day.

There are a number of well-regarded schools nearby, including Milton Court Primary Academy, with secondary options such as Borden Grammar, Highsted Grammar, and Westlands School all within easy reach — giving families a wide choice as they plan ahead. Just around the corner, you'll find parks, green spaces, and local shops, while Sittingbourne town centre offers a full range of supermarkets, cafés, and leisure options including a cinema and high street stores.

Commuting is simple too. Sittingbourne train station is 0.3 miles away and provides direct links into London Victoria and St Pancras, making it ideal for weekday travel or weekend visits. The A2 and A249 are also nearby, giving you quick access to the M2 and wider Kent — whether you're heading to the coast or the capital.

What really sets this part of town apart is the community feel. Streets like Periwinkle Close are known for being friendly and neighbourly, with a pace of life that suits those looking for a mix of modern convenience and long-term comfort.
