Situated on the picturesque Stoneway Road in Laugharne, this exceptional two-bedroom, three-bathroom detached bungalow offers far more than just a beautiful coastal home. Featured on the acclaimed BBC drama Keeping Faith, the property boasts an iconic setting with uninterrupted views of Laugharne Castle and stunning Taf Estuary. This is a rare opportunity to own a home that blends luxury, comfort, and charm.

Inside, the property features a spacious open-plan layout, perfectly suited to modern living. The bright lounge and dining area flows effortlessly into a stylish, fully fitted kitchen—ideal for both daily life and entertaining guests. Natural light floods the space, creating a warm, inviting atmosphere. Both double bedrooms benefit from their own private ensuite bathrooms, while a third bathroom adds practicality for visitors.

Two sunlit conservatories offer panoramic views across the estuary and castle ruins—perfect for morning coffee, reading, or simply enjoying the ever-changing coastal scenery. These peaceful spaces truly elevate the home’s unique charm.

Outside, the beautifully wraparound garden has been designed for low maintenance, offering multiple spots to relax and take in the sea air. A spacious double garage provides secure parking and excellent storage, complemented by a private driveway.

Homes of this calibre in Laugharne rarely come to market—especially those with such an iconic location. Whether you're seeking a full-time residence, a luxury escape, or a standout investment, this property delivers on every level.
