The property is positioned in a quiet lane with gardens to the rear of the property and parking to the front. With neutral décor and carpets, the property is superbly presented. The accommodation comprises of an entrance hall, with ample storage cupboards, a door to the WC with plumbing for a washing machine. A step up to the sitting / dining room, which has a fireplace and sliding patio doors to the garden.

The kitchen / breakfast room has a range of base and eye level units, and has with arched patio doors leading out to the garden. From the sitting room, the inner hallway leads to the three double bedrooms and bathroom.

To the rear, there is a good-sized garden with vegetable plot. To the front, there is parking for two vehicles and a garage/workshop.

The property has electric heaters, and private drainage. Please note that the Solar Panels do not supply electric to this property.

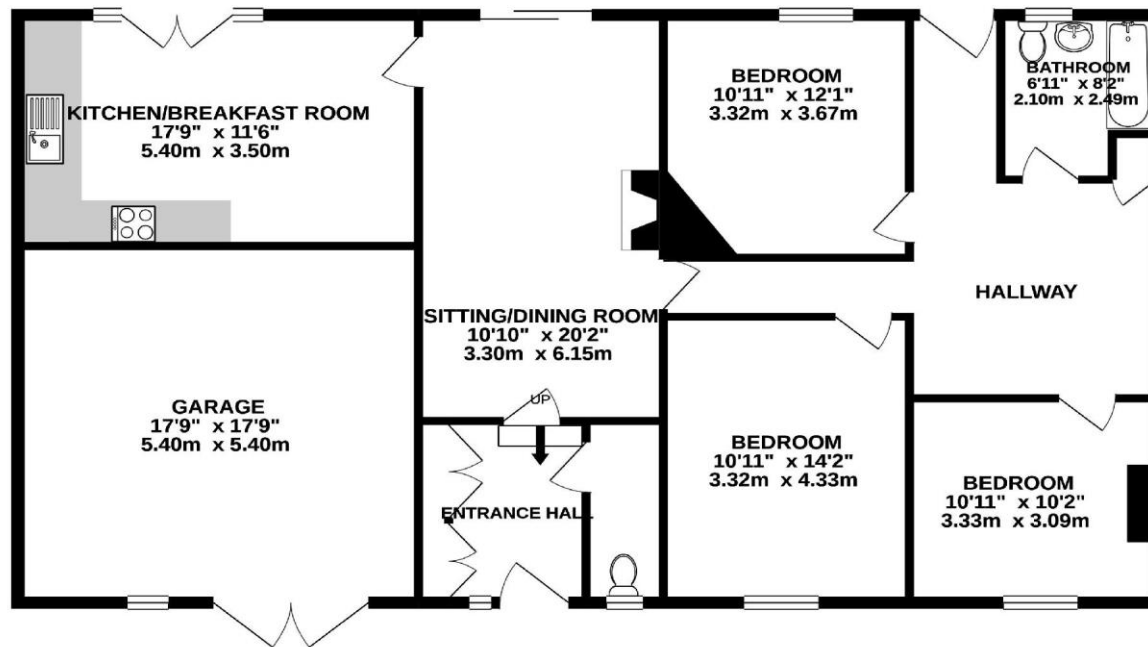

Superfast broadband is available (source: Ofcom). There is a limited mobile signal from O2 and Vodafone, and none from EE and Three (source: Ofcom)

Swarraton is located just a short drive north of the market town of Alresford and is within an easy walk of The Grange, famous for its annual operatic performances. For lovers of the countryside, this is an idyllic part of Hampshire with beautiful scenery all around. There are excellent walks from the door, and nearby is The Woolpack Inn, which is much favoured by both locals and visitors alike. There are riding stables nearby. Alresford is a beautiful Georgian town known for its variety of independent shops, restaurants and inns located in stunning surroundings on the edge of the South Downs National Park. Attractions include the Watercress steam railway, schools for infant, junior and secondary education, several churches and an active and inclusive community. The cathedral city of Winchester is about 7 miles away and there is easy access to the south coast, the midlands and London.
