A well presented bungalow, set on a corner plot in a quiet close. With three bedrooms, garden, double garage and parking, this is an ideal family home.

Upon entering the property, there is a hallway, with plenty of storage, and doors through to the principal rooms. The kitchen / breakfast room features a range of base and eye level units, along with a useful breakfast bar. There is a door through to the adjacent utility room. The spacious sitting room overlooks the rear garden, and has patio doors through to the conservatory.

There is a good-sized master bedroom, with built-in wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. There are two further bedrooms, one of which is set up as a home office. There is a dining room, and a family bathroom.

To the front is a small garden, with off-road parking and access to the double garage. To the rear is a private garden, which is mainly laid to lawn, with mature shrub borders and a patio area.

There is Ultrafast Broadband available (Source: Ofcom). There is a mobile signal for EE, Three, O2 and Vodafone (Source: Ofcom).

We understand that mains services are connected for water, sewerage, gas and electric.

Alresford is a beautiful Georgian town known for its variety of independent shops, restaurants and inns located in stunning surroundings on the edge of the South Downs National Park. Attractions include the Watercress steam railway, schools for infant, junior and secondary education, several churches and an active and inclusive community. The cathedral city of Winchester is about 7 miles away and there is easy access to the south coast, the midlands and London via the road network. There is also mainline rail access to London from both Winchester and Alton. Southampton airport is only about half an hour away by car.
