

12, Lansdowne Avenue
Codsall, Wolverhampton, WV8 2EN
Offers in the region of £575,000

Introducing 12 Lansdowne Avenue, an endearing four bedroom semi-detached period property situated on a most impressive 3/4 acre plot in this sought after location on the outskirts of the village of Codsall.

This well loved family home is filled with character and charm and offers extremely spacious family living. The talking point is without doubt the rear garden, which is approximately 1/2 an acre in size.

Conveniently located with Codsall train station within short walking distance, along with convenient access to Junction 2 of the M54 and the M6 motorway, Codsall village offers a wide range of amenities and facilities including doctors, dentists, public houses, restaurants and butchers with the excellent local schools also within walking distance.

The property would benefit from modernisation throughout in order to achieve its full potential and has ample room to extend STPP.
