Found adjacent to open fields is this three bedroom semi-detached home, located in the popular village of Hothfield. As soon as you arrive you are immediately greeted with the impressive front garden, which also provides parking for vehicles as well as a useful out-building with power and internet!

This quiet village location is set in a conservation area with the property surrounded by country views and even a vineyard, with just a few minutes walk from Hothfield heathland nature reserve (140 acre). The village has a local shop and post office with internal ATM service. Hothfield Common has a children's playground and a multi-use all-weather games pitch adjacent to the south east and a car park to the north just off the A20, easy access to the M20 and links to London.

Being located a moments walk from the Hothfield Common, the accommodation of this home in brief consists of; a well proportioned entrance hall, a good size lounge to front, with large picture window overlooking the front plot, flooding the room with natural light. Across the hall, is the rear kitchen/diner that has been reconfigured - lending itself well to deal with day to day modern living, providing the chance to entertain guests & hosting friends and family, bringing you all together in this well thought out space. The kitchen itself benefits from a great array of wall and base units offering plenty of food preparation space & space to dine as a family with patio doors. There is a rear door that leads from the kitchen into the rear handy utility room & garden beyond.

The stairs lead from the hall to the landing, where you will discover three well proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The master bedroom is ample in floor space which also benefits from large in-built storage cupboards & that glorious far reaching green view. Bedroom three is also located at the front of the home overlooking more greenspace. The second bedroom is an equally well sized double bedroom again offering further storage and overlooking the rear garden. On the landing you will find access to the partially boarded loft.

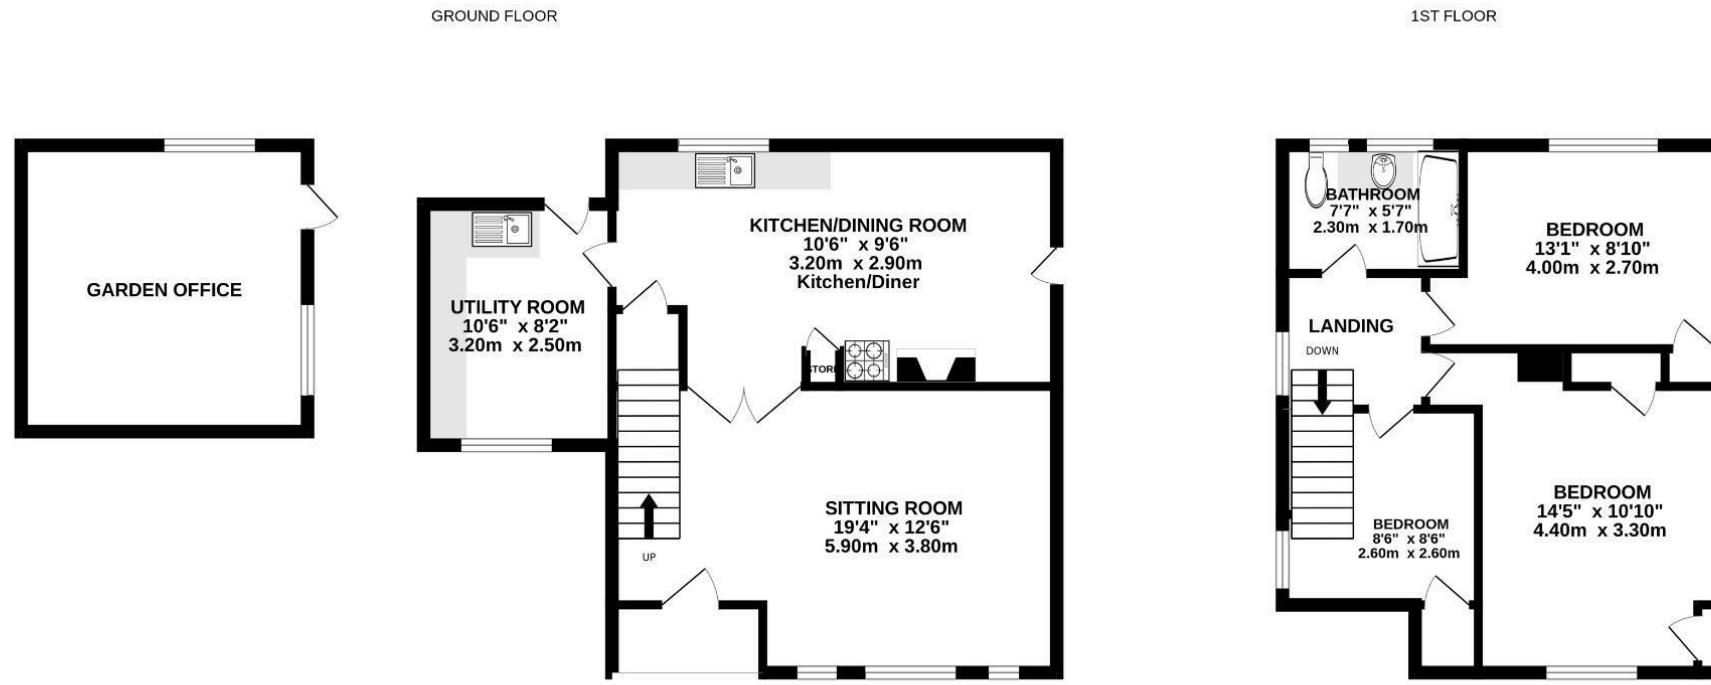

Externally, the home also boasts a generous garden, that offers more than meets the eye, with a laid to lawn section, as well as a patio ideal for catching the summer sun. There's a further area with additional patio, which leads to the out-building, offering a potential work from home space, or to stow away all that comes with family life.
