THE PROPERTY

Tucked away just moments from Haslemere High Street, the house is a beautifully presented five-bedroom detached residence. Approached via a private driveway, the property immediately impresses with its generous frontage, ample parking and double garage.

A spacious hallway leads to a superb open-plan kitchen and dining area. French doors open onto the secluded garden and patio. A separate utility room with a sink, along with a walk-in pantry.

The main reception room boasts a vaulted ceiling with exposed beams, open brick fireplace, six large paned windows and French doors that lead directly to the garden. A further separate sitting room/TV lounge, featuring dual-aspect garden views. A separate office/music room with woodburner and a mezzanine snug above.

The principal bedroom has a dressing area and a spacious en-suite shower room, all overlooking the front gardens. A second double bedroom also enjoys its own en-suite and views of the garden. A ground floor cloakroom adds convenience. Upstairs, there are three further bedrooms. A fifth single bedroom is ideal as a nursery or home office. The family bathroom features a full-sized bath, and overhead shower.

Outside, a mature wrap around garden offering multiple seating areas, water features, and a large covered BBQ area with a brick-built fireplace. Double garage with room above, ideal as an office, games room or gym. A further separate single garage provides additional storage.

The garden will be maintained by the landlords gardener at the landlords expense.
