an exclusive collection of 6 beautiful 1 and 2-bedroom homes, overlooking the beautiful Southend Seafront. With stunning sea and pier views, these homes also benefit from a character finish that speaks to the original property and the surrounding area. The developers have ensured they have maintained the character features of each property, coupling this with Smart Home Technology that enables home lighting, heating and automation control, energy optimisation and environmental sensing, this saving up to 30% on energy bills creating a home that look after the occupants, not the other way around.

Situated on Clifftown Parade, Gleneagles House boasts panoramic sea views which are perfectly framed by the attractive flower beds and gardens lining the promenade.

The development offers ample resident permit parking for the communities ease of use.

Located a short distance from Southend's High Street, Seafront and transport links including trains to London as well as Southend's International airport, this development truly represents an ideal purchase and as such should be viewed without delay.
