We are pleased to offer this delightful mid-terrace property in Stafford, close to town which is a fantastic opportunity for those seeking a modern home in a convenient location.

The property briefly comprises of an open-plan reception room ideal for entertaining and with a guest cloakroom. At the back of the property a modern well designed kitchen area with a good range of gloss units and with patio doors leading out to the low maintenance garden area beyond. The kitchen is a good space and can easily accommodate a table and chairs. Upstairs the property has been thoughtfully designed to maximise space with a jack n jill bathroom serving both bedrooms. The bathroom is a modern chic space with grey and black fittings, incorporating bath with chrome rainfall and shower. Accommodating the bathroom in this way allows for two good sized bedrooms proving invaluable for those wanting a principal bedroom and allowing options for a home office, dressing room or guest bedroom.

This property has local amenities very close by with several takeaways, post office, pharmacy, supermarket, corner shop and public house. There is also a bus stop over the road for excellent transport links and on-street parking. This is a great property for a young couple wanting a modern fresh home within a bustling community.
