BOASTING SOME OF
THE AREAS MOST SPECTACULAR VIEWS
IN THE AREA.

Ground Floor
A useful entrance porch has a door opening into the reception hall which has a door to the right hand side opening to the family room which overlooks the front and a door to the left hand side which opens into a clever 'lootility' room which is a combination of cloakroom and utility room with a range of base and eye level units with space and plumbing for washing machine and tumble drier under and to the other side a fitted wc and wash basin. Moving directly ahead of the entrance hall you enter the wonderful open plan kitchen/dining room which is flooded with natural light by means of bi-folding doors opening to the rear and two Velux windows to the roof. Double doors from here open to the second dedicated reception room which also has a Velux window to the roof and a large window framing the wonderful views to the rear. Additionally there is a useful covered storage space to one side of the house which also opens into the garden.

First Floor
The landing area of the first floor has doors opening to all three bedrooms. Two of the bedrooms overlook the front while the third bedroom which overlooks the rear makes the most of the large views and scenery of the neighbouring countryside. The bathroom is fitted with a white three piece suite which includes a panelled bath with wall mounted shower unit and screen over.

Outside
The front of the property has a block paved driveway providing ample parking and leading to the front door. There is also a door opening to the useful store to the side of the property which leads through to the rear garden. Directly to the rear of the garden is an extensive raised timber deck making an ideal spot for entertaining family and friends while enjoying the spectacular views. The main portion of the garden is laid to lawn and is enclosed by a range of fencing.
