The Location
 The local area of Apsley is an outer district of Hemel Hempstead and is still a busy commercial centre. The Victorian shops that grew up when it was a mill town now house newsagents, public houses, restaurants, and a range of small businesses. The former mill sites are taken up with supermarkets, retail parks and offices. Housing developments combining the canal side location with the ease of access to Apsley railway station (offering direct access to London Euston) have been very successful. Situated 24 miles to the northwest of London and conveniently served by the M1 and M25 motorways, Hemel Hempstead has quickly grown in popularity in the last few years. We have seen more migration from the London suburbs, largely due to its fantastic commuter links including the London Northwestern Railway Overground train to London Euston taking only 35 minutes. Both London Luton and London Heathrow airports are easily accessible via the M1 and M25 respectively.

On Your Doorstep - Kings Langley

Kings Langley is a friendly village with a population of around 5000 nestled in the Hertfordshire countryside, yet only 22 miles from central London, which is easily accessible from the village train station in 25 minutes. A regular bus service runs through the village connecting Watford to Aylesbury. The M25 is also on the doorstep, with Heathrow and Luton airports both being within 25 minutes drive. The village is proud of its nurseries, primary school and secondary school. Further afield are the Watford Grammar Schools and a host of well respected independent schools including Westbrook Hay, York House and Berkhamsted School.
