The classic period architectural features of the exterior are reflected in subtle ways within the interior design style. Wonderfully situated close to both the Chiswick High Road and Kew Village, with lots of open green spaces nearby, Kew Bridge Road is surely one of London's most desirable addresses. This can only be enhanced by the exceptionally convenient location, with Kew Bridge Station next door, Gunnersbury Underground Station just a ten-minute walk and the A4/M4 routes for central London and the west of England just five minutes' drive away.
