IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'll instantly love the layout of your ground floor - from the spacious porch at the front, to the extension at the rear, with the large reception and adjoining kitchen in between. It's all bursting with natural light, which showcases the smart decor. The neutral tones mean it'll be easy to add your own personality, too.

There's plenty of space for dining, so you can enjoy hosting as soon as you've unpacked. The ground floor bathroom, with walk-in shower, will be extra convenient.

On the first floor, the three bedrooms are nicely balanced - and two have in-built storage, as does the landing and hallway. The family bathroom is smart and modern, as you'd expect.

You'll really appreciate having a garden at the front and rear, especially as the latter is south-west facing. It really is a charming space, with beds at the edge, a central lawn and handy shed. The detached garage will be as convenient as the shed when it comes to storage.

Beyond, the area has a lovely community, with plenty of greenery and many amenities, making it a fantastic area to settle down.

WHAT ELSE?

- Parents will be delighted to find out that there are some great schools nearby, including Fullwood Primary School nearby, making it a great location for young families. - You're just near the edge of Fairlop Waters Country Park, the largest country park and leisure facility in Redbridge. It's packed with trails and even has a Outdoor Activity Centre.

- Your nearest station is Barkingside, where the Central line heads into Liverpool Street in around 28 mins.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We moved in 2000 July and always had a peaceful life here. Because we have the garages in the front of the house - our children were safe when they were playing in the front garden. All the amenities are just walkable distance. What else can you ask for.? And the primary school is in Burford close itself!"
