THE PROPERTY:

This beautifully extended family home with multiple garaging to the rear. The residence comprises a door to the entrance hall with stairs to the first floor landing and a stained glass door and window. There is a cloakroom with vanity basin and WC along with an extractor fan. The sitting room enjoys a front aspect bay window and has a fireplace. The separate living room has a Sandpits' installed wood burner set within a fireplace surround. The property has a full width extension to the rear with a kitchen/dining/family area with a beautiful range of bespoke kitchen units with an integrated Range, quartz worksurfaces, a central island, skylights and integrated appliances including a dishwasher, fridge etc. There are bi-folding doors opening onto the garden and engineered oak flooring which continues into the living room. The utility room has a gas boiler (fitted in 2020) powering the domestic hot water and the central heating system, together with plumbing for a washing machine.

To the first floor are three good size bedrooms complemented with a family bathroom with a freestanding bath, shower over, tiled surround, WC, wash hand basin and a double glazed window.

Outside – The house is accessed with a bridge over a small brook and the front garden is fully landscaped with a stone and brick paved pathway. There is side access to the rear garden – which again has been landscaped – with a gravelled area, garden laid to lawn with an additional gravelled area, is fully enclosed and is south facing. The substantial garage/workshop is over 26' and has light and power connected with armoured cabling.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation: 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
