The area offers opportunity for many rural activities including golf at Cannington 18-hole golf course and Enmore Park 18-hole Golf Club, fly fishing at Hawkridge Reservoir and sailing at Durleigh Reservoir, also many beautiful walks on the Quantock hills itself. Nether Stowey is a friendly Quantock Village and has general stores, post office, butcher, pubs, a restaurant, vet, library, GP practice, St Mary's Church and a primary school. The playing field within the village is thriving and used by a number of organised groups and dog walkers. Plans for a new community centre on the field are well advanced. Bridgwater is 9 miles away and Taunton 10 miles, both offering higher educational facilities, leisure and retail amenities. Main line links are available via Bridgwater and Taunton railway station.
