THE PROPERTY:

Briefly, the ground floor comprises a spacious and grand hall with boiler/storage cupboard. A drawing room with inglenook fireplace and front door. A living room with feature fireplace. A kitchen/diner, which provides a great entertaining space, hosting worktop and unit space, Aga, larder cupboard, dual light and French doors leading onto the covered patio. A dining room with a brick-built wine rack. A utility room with unit and worktop space. A ground floor shower room.

Stairs lead to a galleried landing, with airing cupboard, which links the five double sized bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from built in storage, skylight and French doors leading out onto the balcony. The family bathroom hosts a freestanding bath, toilet and basin. The second and third bedrooms both boast built-in storage and modern en-suite shower rooms. The fourth and fifth bedrooms are generously sized with built-in storage.

The rear garden itself is made up of two lawns, one secluded to the rear of the plot, borders with mature plants, pergola set in a character patio, another patio area, unique monastery-esque features and much more! There is a small lawn to the front and side also. A gated driveway leads to the double garage with power, light, electric doors and storage in the attic space.

The property benefits from an oil central heating system and double glazing throughout.

LOCATION:

The popular village of Westonzoyland is approximately 4 miles to the east of Bridgwater and offers local amenities including a shop, pub, church, primary school and community centre. Bridgwater offers a full range of amenities including retail, educational and leisure facilities. Junctions 23 and 24 of the M5 motorway allow easy access to Bristol and Exeter. MEASUREMENTS AND OTHER INFORMATION All measurements are approximate. While we endeavour to make our sales particular accurate and reliable, if there is any point which is of particular importance to you, please contact the office and we will be pleased to check the information with you.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation: 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

We routinely refer potential sellers and purchasers to a selection of recommended local solicitors. It is their decision whether to use those services. In making that decision, it should be known that we may receive a payment benefit of not more than £150 plus VAT per transaction.
