THE PROPERTY:

The property is in need of some cosmetic updating throughout with the accommodation comprising an entrance porch, entrance hall with stairs leading to the first floor. There is a large living room with a double aspect, a dining room with doors opening to the large conservatory, further opening to the rear garden with views over the adjoining countryside. The kitchen/breakfast room is of a good size. The principal bedroom benefits from an en-suite which can be assessed via the bedroom and the entrance hall.

To the first floor is a large second bedroom with an en-suite shower room and a further office/nursery room.

To the front of the bungalow is ample off-road parking which leads to the garage. The garden to the rear has a patio area and is predominantly laid to lawn which down to a summerhouse and allows you to take in the surrounding countryside and views.

A viewing of this residence comes highly recommended to fully appreciate not only its location but its potential.

OUTSIDE:

Situated in the sought after village of Wembdon on the favoured western side of Bridgwater, approximately two miles from the town centre. The village of Wembdon offers various facilities including a store, church and public house whilst junior and senior schools of high repute are close by. Bridgwater offers an extensive range of amenities along with main line railway link, daily coach service to London and access to junctions 23 and 24 of the M5 motorway.

MEASUREMENTS AND OTHER INFORMATION All measurements are approximate. While we endeavour to make our sales particular accurate and reliable, if there is any point which is of particular importance to you, please contact the office and we will be pleased to check the information with you.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation: 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

We routinely refer potential sellers and purchasers to a selection of recommended local solicitors. It is their decision whether to use those services. In making that decision, it should be known that we may receive a payment benefit of not more than £150 plus VAT per transaction.
