THE PROPERTY:
This property is a four bedroomed mid-terraced cottage situated in the attractive village of Stogursey. The accommodation boasts a wealth of original features and is surrounded by beautiful country walks with a historic castle located nearby.

Inside, the cottage comprises of entrance hall with original floor tiling leading a further door accessing the courtyard garden. There is a snug / office with original flagstone flooring and sash windows opening to the front of the property. Located nearby is the sitting room also having sash windows, exposed ceiling beams and an open fireplace adding to the interior's cosy charm. All sash windows have original shutters. Further on there is a boiler / utility room where the oil-fired boiler is housed and plumbing for a washing machine. Nearby, there is also a useful storage cupboard under the stairs. A door opens to the quaint kitchen / breakfast room with a range of cottage styled wall and floor based units and space for a range cooker. There is a sink and drainer overlooking the courtyard rear garden and space for a dining table and chairs. From here is a door through to a ground floor bedroom which could also be used as a family room, with double doors opening to the courtyard garden. There is a further door to a large en-suite/shower room which has the potential to be used as an air b & b, with the en-suite comprising of a large shower, WC and hand wash basin.

To the first floor there are three double bedrooms all boasting a wealth of character and the family bathroom with steps down to a good sized shower, WC and wash basin. Nearby is a good sized airing cupboard.

Outside, to the front of the property there is no parking although parking can be found in the adjacent road and on the High Street nearby. The pretty garden to the rear is a walled garden which houses an extensive variety of trees, plants and mature shrubs and benefits from a good degree of privacy.

A viewing of this property comes highly recommended to fully appreciate the original character and cottage feel that it has and is also highly desirable in that it has no forward onward chain. This property would make a fantastic and unique family home within a popular village for very comfortable rural living.

LOCATION:
Situated in the picturesque Somerset village of Stogursey, close to the Quantock Hills an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with views over open fields. Stogursey enjoys a parish church, primary school, village shop, castle and a public house. The neighbouring villages of Nether Stowey and Cannington offer an additional range of facilities and services. The market town of Bridgwater is approximately 9 miles away offering easy access to the M5 motorway at junctions 23 and 24 and a full range of amenities.

MEASUREMENTS AND OTHER INFORMATION All measurements are approximate. While we endeavour to make our sales particular accurate and reliable, if there is any point which is of particular importance to you, please contact the office and we will be pleased to check the information with you.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

5. Financial Evaluation: 5a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 5b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.

We routinely refer potential sellers and purchasers to a selection of recommended local solicitors. It is their decision whether to use those services. In making that decision, it should be known that we may receive a payment benefit of not more than £150 plus VAT per transaction.
