

57 Downsell Road, London, E15 2TR

Price £550,000

A characterful Victorian family home with impressive developmental potential (STPP) and a large rear garden. Perfectly positioned on a quiet leafy street, just moments from the vibrant High Road and less than ten minutes from Leyton tube. And all within walking distance of the Olympic Park.

The perfect home for a family wanting to put down their first roots, this characterful home has been much loved by generations for over ninety years. There's over 750 square feet of living space to accommodate everyone, with the potential to extend into the garden or the loft.

You're in an ideal position for City commutes, with services to Liverpool Street from nearby Leyton underground taking just eleven minutes. Closer to home there are plentiful Ofsted rated 'Outstanding' nurseries and schools in the area. And just around corner are many nightlife options, including locals' favourite, Leyton Star pub.
