

75 Beck Square, London, E10 7FW

Offers in excess of £500,000

A smartly finished, spacious, two bedroom, two bathroom apartment on the second floor of a modern purpose built block. Featuring two private balconies, plenty of storage and a high quality finish to every room, it's all located just off Lea Bridge Road, mere moments from Lea Bridge station.

The large open plan kitchen, living and dining room extends even further onto a modern private balcony, so there's plenty of space for entertaining guests. There's even a second balcony off the main bedroom for an outdoor relaxation space looking out to the communal gardens.

There's a growing community of great independent taprooms, artist's studios and fantastic places to eat and drink in the repurposed industrial units of nearby Argall Avenue. Lea Bridge Road is also a superb gateway to open green nature reserves.
