- Excellent size
- Loft conversion
- Great condition
- New conservatory

A substantial four bedroom link detached home in excellent condition, benefiting from a converted loft, conservatory, garage and off street parking. The house offers generous and versatile accommodation across three floors.

The ground floor includes a long, dual aspect living and dining room with great natural light, leading to a bright conservatory with full length patio doors and skylights, creating an ideal additional living space. The kitchen is a good size with an integrated gas hob and oven, ample worktops, tiled splashback and double window to the front. There is also a w.c., useful storage cupboard and separate utility room housing the new boiler and providing rear access.

The first floor has four bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a spacious double with front and rear aspect and a modern en suite shower room. There is a further double bedroom overlooking the garden and two additional bedrooms, currently used as an office and guest room. The family bathroom has a shower over bath, basin and w.c.

The loft has been converted into an excellent family room. Previously used as a fitness studio, it features a reinforced sprung floor and Velux windows, adding a large and versatile space suitable for a range of uses.

Outside, the property has a lawned rear garden with patio and side access. A single garage with electricity and off street parking complete the accommodation.

The property is well located for the Science and Business Parks, with convenient access to the A14 and Cambridge City Centre.
