£900 Per

Introducing this charming 2 bed, 2 bath cottage nestled in the heart of Aveton Gifford

- Character and charming features throughout
- Short drive to beaches including Bantham, Thurlestone and Hope Cove
- Short stroll to Creek - perfect for water enthusiasts

Full Description

A spacious hallway leads to a bright living area with high ceilings, accentuated by large sash windows that flood the space with natural light. A focal point electric fireplace adds warmth and character, while ample storage enhances functionality.

The adjoining kitchen/dining room features wall and floor cupboards and ample work top space. It's equipped to accommodate white goods and boasts the added convenience of a built-in electric oven and electric hob.

Upstairs the cottage charm continues with a master bedroom boasting further high ceilings and an en-suite shower room. A second double bedroom offers a bright and spacious room, while a family bathroom featuring a freestanding bath completes the first floor. Well presented with a mix of cottage charm with contemporary comforts, this home is thoughtfully designed.

Convenience is paramount, with ample parking available in the village car park a short distance away. Situated along Fore Street, residents enjoy easy access to the village hall, a charming children's play park, picturesque countryside walks, and the local pub. For water enthusiasts, the nearby Creek beckons with opportunities for aquatic adventures, including paddling to Bantham Beach or traversing the tidal road to reach the Oyster Shack, a renowned fish restaurant.
