An elegant period home in the heart of Low Fell...

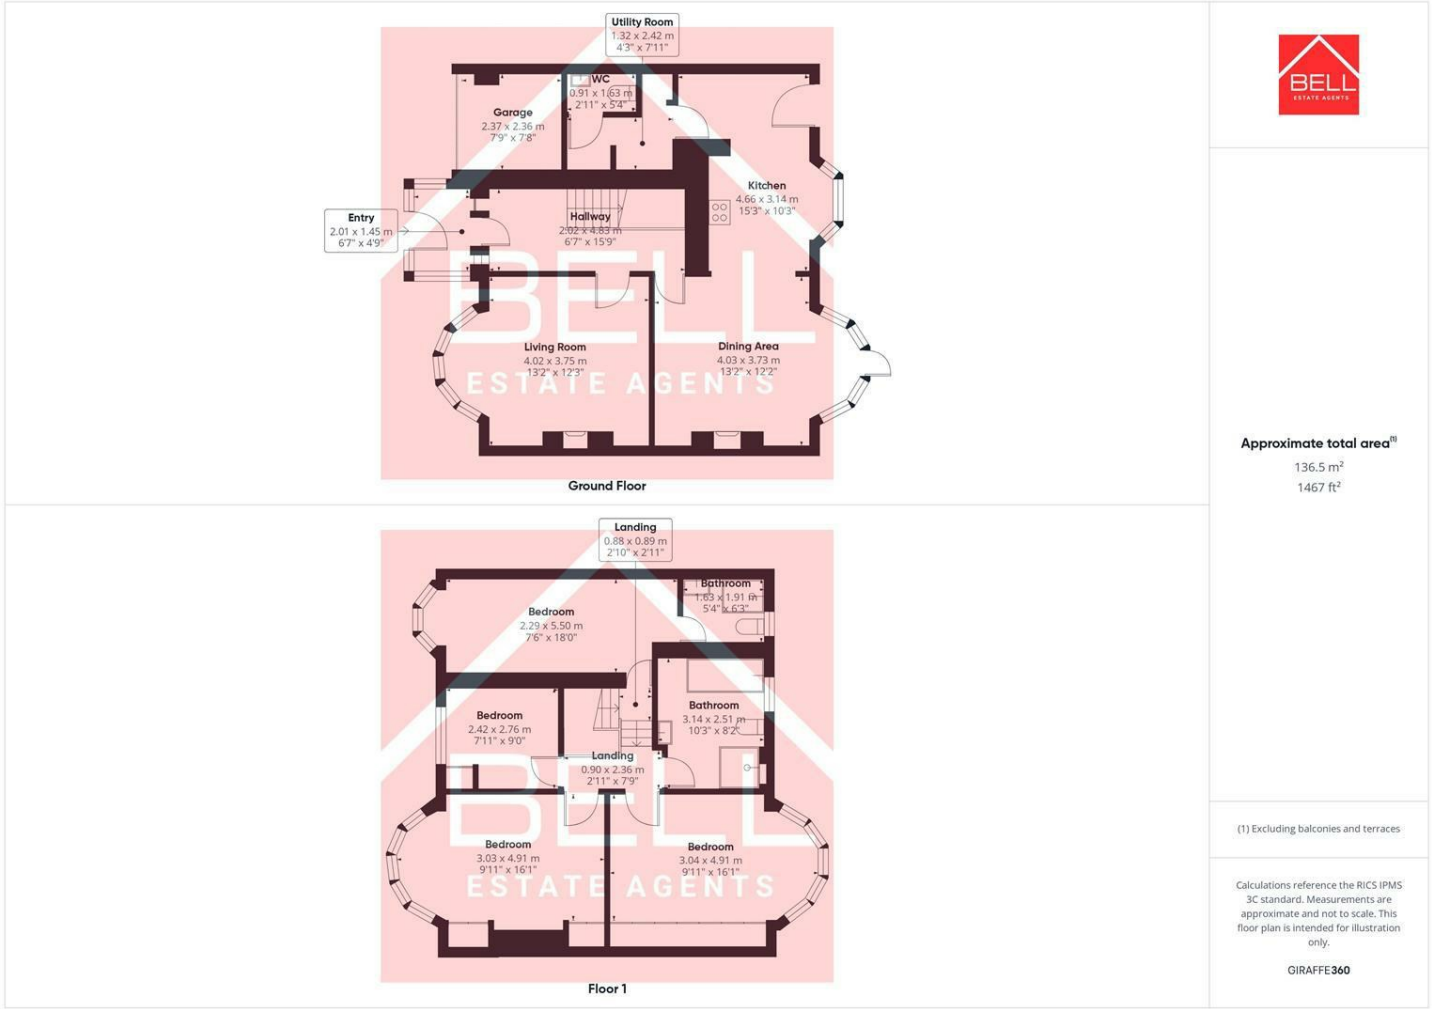

A home of timeless character and contemporary comfort, Musgrave Road stands proudly in one of Low Fell's most sought-after locations. This beautifully restored four-bedroom detached home has been thoughtfully updated to offer elegant family living, combining period detailing with sleek, modern design.

The welcoming porch with original leaded windows opens into a grand hallway with panelled walls and herringbone flooring, setting the tone for the quality that continues throughout. The front lounge exudes warmth and sophistication with its bay window, shutters and traditional fireplace – a perfect space to unwind.

At the rear, the show stopping open-plan kitchen and dining area offers a seamless blend of style and functionality. Featuring bespoke shaker cabinetry, quartz worktops, AEG appliances and a breakfast bar, it flows naturally into the bay-fronted dining area with wood flooring and elegant lighting – ideal for entertaining or family gatherings. A utility room, WC and integral garage add everyday practicality.

Upstairs, four beautifully presented bedrooms provide generous space and flexibility, two enhanced by stylish fitted wardrobes and serene bay windows. The luxurious family bathroom is a highlight, with a
