Within walking distance to the centre of the sought-after village of Weobley, this pretty, ex-rental, Grade II Listed terrace cottage comes to the market with no chain, via auction.

In need of a little TLC, this property presents an ideal opportunity to turn into a great holiday let, retirement home or even a home for a first time buyer.

The main living room is entered directly by the front door. This space is lit via a front-facing window and benefits from electric storage heating as well as an attractive open fire in a beautiful cast surround with a timber mantel. A door to an under-stairs cupboard is a useful addition and a further door leads to the stairs, giving access to the first floor.

The kitchen sits to the rear and spans the full width of the property; it is in a perfectly serviceable state of repair although new owners may choose to refurbish. There is plenty of cupboard and storage space as well as room for a washing machine and refrigerator. There is a cooker and the kitchen sink sits below a pretty window, giving views across the rear garden. A stable door leads out to the garden.

Upstairs, there is a landing area, two bedrooms- both with built-in storage - overlooking the rear garden and a family bathroom with a bath with overhead shower, wash hand basin and WC.

Outside: A pretty stable door from the kitchen leads you out into a sweet garden, mostly laid to lawn, with a garden shed to the rear. There is useful rear access to the garden from the front of the property.

Area: Formerly a market town, Weobley is part of Herefordshire's Black and White Trail; the magpie sculpture in the centre of the village celebrates the 1999 title of best-kept village in England. The village is very active with a regular bus service to the city of Hereford - or if you just want to pop down to the shops you will find everything you need to live an independent life with an array of shops, a butcher, tea room, restaurant, beauticians and doctor's surgery. Two good schools are also within easy reach: Weobley Primary School and Weobley High School.
