

2 Little Highway Mews Pennard Road, Pennard, Swansea, City & County Of

£550,000

Discover the epitome of rustic charm and contemporary living in this captivating three-bedroom barn conversion nestled within the highly sought-after locale of Pennard. Forming part of an exclusive trio of properties ingeniously crafted from a collection of historic farm buildings, this residence stands as a testament to the ingenuity and craftsmanship of its time, likely among the pioneering barn conversion projects in the Pennard area.

Steeped in a rich tapestry of history, this property transports you back two centuries to a time when it served as the clandestine headquarters of a notorious smuggling syndicate. Imagine the intrigue of secret meetings and covert operations, with contraband hidden within these very walls, and excise men from Swansea prowling the grounds. Today, while the whispers of bygone days echo faintly, you're invited to weave your own tales of leisure and relaxation in this storied abode.
