£475,000

Situated in the sought-after area of Newton, this beautifully renovated detached family home enjoys an enviable position within walking distance of Mumbles, Underhill Park and the sandy shores of Langland & Caswell Bay. Families will also appreciate access to well-regarded local schools including Newton Primary School & Bishopston Comprehensive School, while nearby coastal walks, cafés, and everyday amenities further enhance the homes appeal.

The property offers well-balanced living space across two floors, including a modern kitchen, a spacious lounge, and a dining area ideal for family gatherings. A separate sitting room and dedicated office provide versatility, supported by a practical utility room. Upstairs, three comfortable bedrooms are served by a family bathroom.

Externally, there is off-road parking and a garage, with side access to the rear garden. Designed for ease of maintenance, the outdoor space includes a patio seating area perfect for entertaining or relaxing, with secure boundaries and an additional rear access point.

This home represents an excellent opportunity to secure a family property in Newton, combining generous accommodation with a superb coastal lifestyle.
