From its elevated position overlooking the curve of Swansea Bay, this home enjoys beautiful sea views from the lounge and principal bedrooms, creating a natural connection to the coast that defines life here. The house sits within an impressive plot of around 0.08 acres and extends to approximately 1,510 square feet, offering a sense of space and light that runs throughout.

The ground floor has been designed for both comfort and flow, with a welcoming hallway leading to a generous lounge where large windows frame the bay beyond. A separate dining room opens to a bright conservatory that captures the afternoon sun, while the kitchen offers a practical and well-arranged workspace with views over the garden. Upstairs, three bedrooms provide calm and proportionate accommodation, two enjoying the same coastal outlook, complemented by a bathroom and separate cloakroom.

Outside, the frontage features driveway parking for several vehicles and a neatly kept lawn bordered by mature shrubs. The rear garden offers a peaceful and easily maintained setting with a patio terrace ideal for outdoor dining, leading to a gravelled area enclosed by a mix of wall and fencing. There is side access, a garage and useful storage, ensuring the space functions as well as it feels.

The setting combines convenience with a coastal charm unique to this part of Blackpill. The promenade and beach are moments away, inviting morning walks or cycle rides towards Mumbles or the city. Nearby, Clyne Gardens provides a beautiful retreat with ornamental planting and woodland trails, while the Clyne Valley Country Park extends opportunities for outdoor exploration. Local cafés and amenities line the nearby Mumbles Road, and the area is well served by respected schools including Bishopston Comprehensive. Road links and bus routes connect easily to Swansea and beyond, making this a location that balances calm with connectivity.
