Set within the gentle rhythm of Bishopston village life, this beautifully renewed bungalow enjoys a setting that balances coast and countryside with quiet assurance. The sweep of Gower's beaches lies close at hand, with cliff paths and open commons offering space to breathe, while the village itself provides a warm sense of community. Independent cafés, well regarded schools and everyday amenities sit within easy reach, and Swansea is readily accessible for wider connections without intruding on the calm of the area.

Behind a neat frontage, the house reveals interiors that have been thoughtfully modernised throughout. From the moment you step inside, there is a feeling of order and ease, with a welcoming porch leading into a central hallway that connects the accommodation with clarity. The principal living spaces are light and composed, offering distinct areas for relaxation and dining that feel equally suited to quiet evenings or sociable gatherings. The kitchen is practical and well planned, designed to support daily life without fuss, while the bathroom continues the sense of careful renewal.

Three bedrooms provide flexible accommodation, allowing the home to adapt comfortably to different stages of life, whether that means space for guests, working from home or simply room to retreat. The renovation has been comprehensive and considered, with key improvements including a new roof, updated services and modern electrics, offering reassurance alongside its refined presentation. The property is offered with no onward chain, allowing a straightforward move for the next owner.

Outside, the plot unfolds with a pleasing balance of structure and softness. A private driveway to the front provides parking for several vehicles and leads to a garage, while the rear garden has been arranged for enjoyment with minimal effort. A raised patio creates a natural spot for outdoor dining or morning coffee, stepping down to a lawn bordered by walls and fencing.
