Built in 2016 by Bovis Homes, this immaculately presented three bedroom terraced home occupies a peaceful position along a tranquil, tree-lined pathway within the popular Round House Park development of Cringleford. The property enjoys a distinctive and quirky layout with generous accommodation throughout.

The ground floor offers a well-proportioned kitchen/dining room, a WC, and a comfortable sitting room with patio doors opening directly onto the rear garden. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms, including an en-suite shower room to the principal bedroom, along with a contemporary family bathroom and an airing cupboard.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden features sandalwood decking, while also providing access to the garage en-bloc and an allocated parking space via the rear. The property further benefits from solar panels, enhancing energy efficiency.
