Asking Price £625,000

Originally comprising the Coach House to an adjoining prominent property and forming part of the historical Trevethoe Estate, The Coach House was used to house the horses and carriage of the estate manager. The property was literally rebuilt in around 1981 to create the current dwelling which has further modernised and refined by the current owners.

The potential to create an income from home is an extremely attractive option following the creation of a stylish holiday let, which has enjoyed a brisk trade since commencing business. Alternatively for those looking for multigenerational living, the holiday let would offer very comfortable ancillary accommodation to the main house. Furthermore, there is an insulated timber studio, currently used as an art studio (19' x 9'2"), with water/waste supply, internet connection and electric offering scope for use as an excellent home office.

The Coach House itself comprises a very well appointed DETACHED bungalow, set in extensive private grounds set well back from the lane and being approached via a generous driveway offering parking for numerous vehicles. The sizeable plot means that there is plenty of scope for further extension to the property (subject to necessary consents) offering new owners plenty of opportunity to make their mark.

The Coach House - The well-proportioned accommodation benefits from gas central heating and uPVC double glazing throughout and comprises -
