McGinn & Co

Offers Over £160,000

A chance to acquire an incredibly stylish Grade II Listed first floor apartment, set within a most stunning period building, believed to date back to the 17th century. The property sits in a prominent position on the High Street right in the heart of the popular village of Bidford on Avon and is therefore readily accessible to excellent local amenities.

The property itself is approached via a very pleasant communal hallway serving one other apartment and giving access to a cellar, which provides very useful storage. The accommodation offers a wonderful blend of period charm and modern comforts which, along with generous room sizes, makes this a very desirable place to live.

The internal accommodation briefly comprises; Hallway, Sitting Room with dual aspect, Generous Dining Kitchen with integrated appliances, Double Bedroom with dual aspect and Bathroom.

We are advised by the vendor that the property benefits from a share of the freehold (subject to legal verification).
