Property Description

Set within a highly regarded retirement development, this charming two bedroom first-floor apartment offers a superb blend of comfort, independence and community living. Originally opened with fanfare by the Beverley Sisters in 1994, the development remains beautifully maintained and continues to provide a welcoming environment for residents aged 60 and over. The property is offered on a chain free basis and features a bright and well-proportioned living room with a defined dining area set within an attractive bay window, enjoying pleasant views over the communal gardens, and a fitted kitchen just off the lounge, designed for practical day-to-day use. The apartment includes two double bedrooms, with the principal room benefiting from built-in wardrobes, and a large walk-in shower room/WC completes the layout. Residents enjoy access to a wide range of onsite amenities, including a house manager, entryphone system, lift access, laundry room, and well-kept communal grounds, as well as allocated parking for residents. The development also offers a welcoming residents' lounge, providing the perfect space for socialising or relaxing. To really appreciate the location, size and condition, an internal viewing is highly recommended through the vendors sole agents, Adam Hayes Estate Agents.
