About the property

An immaculate detached house for sale, ideally located in a sought-after area, renowned for its lush green spaces. This recently renovated property boasts an array of impressive features that make it a perfect family home.

The house comprises four spacious bedrooms, all of which are double-sized. The master bedroom has the added luxury of an en-suite and built in wardrobes making it a comfortable and private retreat. The new family bathroom is fully tiled and comprises a modern boat bath three piece suite.

At the heart of the home is the family centric kitchen diner. It provides open space, clean lines through quartz worktops and modern lighting. The kitchen is a testament to the property's overall condition - immaculate and ready for immediate move-in.
