

50 Willersey Road, Evesham, WR11 7HB

Offers over £250,000

This older style, red brick three-bedroom home boasts inviting interiors and convenient rear parking. With double glazing and gas central heating, the home features a sunny rear garden and a well-insulated outbuilding, presently used as a home gym.

Approaching the front entrance via a neat paved pathway, you're welcomed into a hallway leading to the upper level. The cosy sitting room showcases a focal point log burner within a striking fireplace, complemented by clever under stairs storage. The kitchen diner is appointed with a selection of wall and base units, accompanied by sleek roll-top work surfaces and ample appliance spaces. Adjacent, a rear hall grants access to the delightful bathroom.

To the first floor, discover three generously sized bedrooms, with the master bedroom offering picturesque countryside vistas. Outside, the rear garden with patio and lawn, providing access to the parking area and the well-equipped home gym, complete with power, lighting, double glazing, and insulation.
