Nestled within the heart of a highly coveted village, this former farmhouse boasts an enchanting presence, occupying a serene and prominent position. Its rich history, tracing back in part to the 16th century, intertwines seamlessly with modern upgrades undertaken around 2000, meticulously preserving and enhancing its inherent charm. From flagstone floors to exposed timbers and stonework, every corner exudes character, complemented by period doors and exquisite inglenook fireplaces.

Sprawling across approximately just shy of 3,000 sqft, the accommodation really must be viewed to appreciate the character, charm and space that this has to offer. The property comprises of; rear porch, w/c, utility, stunning country kitchen/breakfast room, dining room and the most wonderful living room. Upstairs benefits from three spacious double bedrooms all benefitting from ensembles.

Outside, the property unfolds into three distinct areas, with an enclosed walled garden at the rear accessible through automatic gates, offering gravel pathways and tranquil paved seating spots. A versatile garage/workshop with power connection stands within this area. Nearby, a designated parking area, sheltered by a car barn with two bays, provides ample space. A rear door leads to a private garden oasis, currently paved, featuring raised vegetable beds and a handy lean-to garden store.
