

The Nook, 3 Salters Way , Cheltenham, GL54 5PJ

Offers in the region of £450,000

Nestled on a peaceful village lane with panoramic views of the surrounding countryside, this charming three-bedroom house draws inspiration from traditional Swedish wooden cottages, creating an idyllic home in a picturesque setting.

The interior is beautifully bright, with charming spaces that exude a natural, airy atmosphere, embodying the Scandinavian love for light and openness.

The house features whitewashed timber panels, original wooden flooring, and exposed brickwork, all thoughtfully incorporated to create a modern home that still honors its Cotswolds heritage.

Equipped with an air source heat pump, the house offers an efficient and cost-effective heating system. Additional amenities include off-street parking for

- Timber framed design
- Not your standard rural property, this really does have the WOW factor
- Stunning, rural location
- South facing garden
- Industrial feel
- Air source heat pump
- Large driveway with ample parking
- Three bedrooms
- Refurbished
- Large utility with separate entrance

