Superbly situated for the town centre whilst enjoying a most discreet, private position we are pleased to offer this charming, two double bedroom Georgian Home. The property, originally part of the former National Westminster Bank boasts superb room sizes and the position enjoys views on to Bridge Street whilst being superbly hidden from the hustle and bustle of the Town. Internally the spacious accommodation offers an entrance hall, impressive sitting/dining room, modern kitchen, large landing/study area, two double bedrooms and bathroom room which have all undergone an exceptional refurbishment providing a delightful, modern living space. Viewing is essential to appreciate the space and location on offer.

Property

Stepping through the front door of this charming home we are welcomed by the entrance hall where the feeling of space and combination of character and clean modern decor are instantly apparent, the hall offers the perfect spot for our coats and boots after a wander along the River and many green spaces situated just footsteps from the house. Stairs rise to the first floor and a door opens to the kitchen. The 'L' shaped kitchen offers a deceptive space with an expanse of solid wooden work surfaces set over contrasting cream units. The sink is set below a window which enjoys an elevated view over Bridge Street whilst a fitted cooker, hob and extractor are in place. Space is made for the fridge and washing machine and a large walk in pantry cupboard adds to the storage space. From here we flow open plan into the impressive sitting/dining room. Approaching 200.sq.ft this delightful space is perfect for family life and entertaining alike. A large window looks onto the courtyard and pours natural light into the room which reflects off the wooden effect flooring that flows throughout the ground floor. Climbing the stairs to the first floor we find a most impressive landing/study space, the hallway leads from here to the two bedrooms and bathroom. The first bedroom is a generous double room with a large storage cupboard set of the head of the stairs, a window looks onto Bridge Street and the Town Centre. Adjacent the master bedroom offers an excellent space for the expected master bedroom furnishings and again enjoys the elevated view. Completing the accommodation the family bathroom has been fitted to the standard found throughout with a modern white suite comprising a bath with shower and screen over, wash basin and w/c which is complimented with attractive tiled walls and floor.

Outside

From the Town Centre we access the property off Trinity Street via the side of the former National Westminster Bank, a right of way takes us over the courtyard entrance which overlooks Honey Pot Lane and the former town 'well'. At the front of Bank House Cottage an attractive gravelled courtyard offers a perfect seating area and space for our bins, the current owners have a low level garden store in situ. From the courtyard steps lead us to the front door of the property.

Location

This charming property boasts a central location in the heart of this rural Market Town whilst enjoying a most discreet position. Bungay offers a good range of all the necessary amenities and shops, schools, antique shops, restaurants, The Fisher Theatre (now showing films) and leisure facilities including indoor swimming pool and golf club. The Cathedral City of Norwich is about 30 mins drive to the North and has a mainline train link to London Liverpool Street (1hr 54mins). Diss provides another mainline link to London and is 19 miles distance. The unspoiled heritage coastline of Suffolk with the lovely beaches of Southwold and Walberswick are a short distance away.
