Property

Approaching the property from the parking area at the rear we are welcomed by a door from the garden which leads into the hallway of this detached bungalow. The sitting room is positioned looking over the garden area and enjoys a door opening to the same. A feature fireplace offers a focal point to the room. On the opposite side of the hall again enjoying the garden view we find the second bedroom which is fitted with a range storage. Stepping along the hall we pass the shower room and find the master bedroom set central to the property. This spacious room again offers some fitted storage and looks to the side aspect of the property. Stepping into the dining we find a generous second reception room that enjoys a large window looking onto the driveway, the dining room opens into the kitchen via a folding door ideally positioned for entertaining. The kitchen spans the rear of the bungalow and offers a vast range of fitted wall and base units that offer an integral double oven, hob, and fridge/freezer all of which are reported to be working. A window to the side again looks to the driveway whilst a window over the sink looks into the lobby/conservatory. A door opens to the same and in-turn the lobby opens to the front gardens. This completes the accommodation.

Approaching the property from Black Horse Lane we are welcomed by a generous frontage which is currently offers a fenced garden area which leads us to the entrance via the large lobby/conservatory. Here we find the oil tank whilst the recently replaced external oil boiler is set to the side of the bungalow. The driveway leads back towards the property where a gate opens to the rear garden space. The rear garden is fully enclosed by fencing and currently laid to paving for ease of maintenance. We pass a feature pond as we approach the entrance on this side. The plot at the rear enjoys the open views over the recreational ground as we look towards Station Road.
