A semi detached bungalow situated on a useful and sizeable corner plot!

Located in a quiet cul-de-sac and within walking distance to local amenities, this property in Meir Hay is bound to meet all of your criteria in your search for a bungalow!

At the entrance you are greeted by an impressive pressed concrete pathway which leads you to the front door. At this point you will appreciate the sheer size of the corner plot which is currently operated as attractive gardens but most certainly offers the potential to be converted into additional parking space if required. At the rear of the plot is a detached brick garage which is accessed by the driveway.

Internally, the bungalow is well modernised throughout, but we appreciate there are some minor and selective alternations you may wish to make. The property is well equipped with UPVC double glazed windows throughout and heating from a combi boiler.

There is no onward chain and we would be delighted to show you around!

See our online virtual tour and for more information call or e-mail us.
