Welcome to 51 Bakers Lane, a beautifully extended 1930s semi-detached house in Sutton Coldfield. This charming 4-bedroom home is spread over three floors, offering ample living space. The ground floor features a cosy living room, a beloved open-plan kitchen diner, a useful pantry, a utility room, and a convenient downstairs WC. The first floor boasts two spacious double bedrooms, with bedroom two offering a Juliet balcony with serene garden views. There's also a versatile single bedroom, perfect for a home office, and a well-appointed family bathroom. The converted roof space is home to an impressive master suite with an en-suite bathroom. This property perfectly blends classic charm with modern living, making it a must-see for any prospective buyer.
