Petty Real are delighted to bring to market this spacious four-bedroom detached home on Brantfell Drive, ideally located in the desirable Ightenhill area of Burnley—perfectly suited for modern family living.

Upon entering the property, you're welcomed by a hallway leading to a convenient downstairs W/C with sink and toilet. To the end of the hall, a versatile reception room offers flexibility—ideal as a home office, playroom, or guest bedroom.

The kitchen sits to the front of the property and boasts worktops on all four walls, with plentiful lower and upper storage. This flows seamlessly into a designated dining area—perfect for family meals and entertaining.

Across the hallway is the main lounge, offering ample room for various furniture arrangements. A TV feature wall and plenty of floor space make it ideal for relaxed evenings. The living space extends into a conservatory and an additional rear extension, featuring bifold doors that open out to a private garden. Twin skylights add even more natural light, creating a bright and airy feel.

Upstairs, the fourth bedroom overlooks the front and is ideal for a child's room. Bedrooms two and three are well-sized—perfect for teenagers—with room for desks, wardrobes, or additional seating. The generous master bedroom sits above the extension and benefits from large fitted wardrobes and a modern three-piece en-suite with walk-in shower.

Externally, the property includes a detached garage and a spacious driveway with room for 3–4 vehicles.
