This charming period property, spread across three floors, is nestled in a picturesque location just off Gisburn Road. The home beautifully blends traditional character with modern comforts, featuring stone mullion windows fitted with double-glazed units and efficient gas central heating. The extensively fitted dining kitchen, finished in a classic country cream, offers a warm and inviting space for meals. The bathroom is modern and sleek, featuring a contemporary three-piece suite.

The entire first floor is dedicated to a spacious lounge, providing an elegant yet cozy area to relax or entertain. On the second floor, you'll find two delightful bedrooms, both showcasing stunning exposed beams set against the vaulted ceiling, adding to the property's unique charm. Additionally there is a separate WC and a shower is located to the main bedroom.

Outside, the cottage boasts a pretty forecourt garden, perfect for enjoying the tranquil surroundings. This delightful home offers generous accommodation, combining the appeal of a period cottage with the convenience of modern living, making it a truly special find.
