Situated within this magnificent detached Victorian House is this bright and spacious two bedroom garden apartment.

Measuring 1367 square feet, the apartment is entered through a spacious hallway, leading on to a large lounge with feature fireplace, separate dining area and door through to a useful study with skylight windows. Double doors lead directly from the lounge to a private patio area with steps up to garden which is mainly laid to lawn with surrounding trees and shrubs. The airy master bedroom has built in wardrobes and a stunning en-suite wet room. The second bedroom is of a good size and is immaculately presented, as are the guest bathroom and fitted kitchen. The property has been interior designed to a very high specification; benefiting from underfloor heating throughout, ceiling speakers in every room and other bespoke features. Ideally situated on this prestigious residential road close to Chiswick mainline railway station, the development is a short walk from local amenities and offers easy access to the M4 and Heathrow. The property comes with allocated off street parking accessed via automatic security gates.
