3 Heather Bank

Billericay CM11 2BJ

Offers In Excess Of

£500,000

Lovely extended three-bedroom semi-detached house, nicely presented throughout in rarely available cul-de-sac, a stones throw from Billericay High Street, and less than a mile of the station.

A spacious entrance hall leads to a very impressive through lounge/dining/kitchen some thirty-feet in overall length incorporating a modern range of fitted units and extensive working surfaces, some integral appliances.

From the hallway, there is access to a quality fitted bathroom with complimenting grey tiling. Up on the first floor there are two double and one single bedroom/office and further cloakroom.

Outside, the house is nicely set back from the road with attractive grey block-paviour driveway for two cars and further shared driveway to the side leading to a detached single garage (17'5 x 8'4). Gate to the rear garden extending to 55' in length. Commencing with large block paved patio and step down to matching pathway and neat lawn flanked by established trees and shrubs.

This very impressive property is situated within the sought-after Sunnymede neighbourhood, just a 10-minute walk from both Billericay Railway Station (35 minutes to London Liverpool Street), and the High Street with its popular Waitrose Store. Local shops including Tesco Express are moments away with the local Sunnymede Primary School also a short walk away.

Agents Note - the vendors have recently had architectural plans drawn up to extend the rear of the property at ground and first floor level.
