The Cathedral City of Exeter is easily accessible, being approximately 17 miles with the M5 motorway providing excellent communication links throughout the county.

This much-loved family property comes to market for the first time in 40-years. The property is in need of renovation and modernisation but offers a superb opportunity to refurbish and possibly extend to meet the exact requirements and personal tastes of both families and retired occupants alike. The accommodation comprises; reception hall leading to a dual aspect sitting room with French doors opening onto the garden. The formal dining room has a fireplace and the dual-aspect kitchen has a range of cupboards and drawers both at base and eye level whilst allowing room for modern appliances. On the first floor are four bedrooms and a family bathroom. The house also benefits from a gas central heating system and uPVC double-glazed windows.

The property is approached via a single track lane leading to only this cottage and subsequently the footpath onto Muttersmoor. The driveway has room for several vehicles. The garden is predominantly laid to lawn and is a blank canvas for a keen gardener to landscape. The mature boundaries of shrubs and trees provide an excellent natural screen, creating a feeling of seclusion, peace and quiet.

The garden is also a haven for the local wildlife in this truly idyllic setting. The total plot extends to 0.2 of an acre.
