DESCRIPTION: This charming extended 1930s semi-detached home is situated in an established residential area, offering a perfect blend of period character and modern convenience. The welcoming hallway leads to a cloakroom/shower room, a spacious living room with arched access to a dining room, ideal for family gatherings and a garden room with bi-fold doors to the garden. The well-appointed kitchen provides ample storage and workspace, while the converted garage now serves as a versatile utility room and workshop. Upstairs, four generously sized bedrooms are complemented by a stylish bathroom featuring a classic clawfoot bath. Externally, the property benefits from driveway parking for three cars and a mature, secluded rear garden, providing a peaceful outdoor retreat and benefiting from a summer house.

LOCATION: Andover offers a range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities including a college of further education, a cinema, theatre and leisure centre. The mainline railway station runs a direct route to London's Waterloo in just over an hour whilst the nearby A303 offers good road access to both London and the West Country.
