DESCRIPTION: Built at the turn of the last century, this semi-detached house is located in an established residential area with easy access to the town centre and the popular Ladies Walk. The accommodation offers much character and comprises a hallway, a dining room, a living room with glazed doors into a small conservatory, a kitchen, a ground floor bathroom and three double bedrooms to the first floor. A particular feature of the property is the good-sized and secluded garden which benefits from a patio area adjacent to the house and a summerhouse to the rear with a covered veranda.

LOCATION: Andover offers a range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities, including a college of further education, a cinema, theatre and leisure centre. The mainline railway station runs a direct route to London's Waterloo in just over an hour, whilst the nearby A303 offers good road access to both London and the West Country. Old Winton Road can be found on the southern side of Andover off Winchester Road and has its own convenience store and also benefits from being on a town centre bus route. The location provides good access not only to the town centre but also open countryside with the start of the historic Ladies Walk just opposite the property. Rooksbury Mill Nature Reserve, Harewood Forest and the outlying Clatford villages are all a short distance away also, with Andover Golf Club located on Winchester Road and the Hampshire Golf Club a short distance further on as Winchester Road heads towards Stockbridge, Wherwell, Chilbolton and the River Test.
