2 Merewood Lodge

Ecclerigg, Windermere

Sale of a well presented and proportioned three bedroom two bathroom property located on a highly regarded development. A light and airy house with three double/twin bedrooms. Not unusual for the Lakes the property is an upside down house taking advantage of the country views from the living/ dining room on the first floor which also has the benefit of a lovely balcony. There is a useful store cupboard which provides access to a large attic, which subject to approval could potentially house another ensuite bedroom.

Expertly converted in 2001 by renowned local builders, Robert Hughes, into a fabulous and spacious contemporary property. Enjoying attractive south facing country views including winter views of Lake Windermere. With the huge advantage of a lovely gently elevated private garden with substantial summer house. Private parking for two vehicles with additional visitor parking.

The property has been well looked after and maintained by the current owners including some new quality fittings. Its currently a well established holiday let through local lettings agents Lakelovers, more information can be found at www.lakelovers.co.uk. The property is sold as a going concern including all forward bookings and the majority of contents with the exception of a few personal items. It currently generates an annual income of circa £25,000 to £40,000, dependant on usage by the owner. Lakelovers are more than willing to advise new buyer's how to maximise income up to this level.

Merewood Lodge is a series of thirteen individual houses and apartments of the highest quality, designed and built by respected Lakeland developer Robert Hughes. Located in Ecclerigg, opposite Brockhole between Windermere and Ambleside in the heart of the Lake District National Park with lake shore walks at Brockhole and country walks into Troutbeck right from the doorstep. Within easy walking distance to Langdale Chase, Merewood Hotel and Lowood Hotel.
