Superb opportunity to acquire an excellent three bedroom, four bathroom detached Lakeland stone built bungalow. Offering generously proportioned accommodation and spectacular panoramic views from its gently elevated position over the valley towards the surrounding Lakeland fells. Available subject to negotiation with the benefit of an adjoining paddock which extends to just over two acres.

Although the property requires some modernisation and refurbishment including kitchen and bathrooms it does provide superb potential as there is possibility to extend into the attic space with relevant permissions, whilst its sat on a generous plot which would also allow an extension if desired. Benefiting from double glazed wooden windows.

Nestled on a prominent sloping plot with private sweeping drive having a detached garage to the front and an additional garage to the upper rear level. Having an abundance of parking and additional useful sheds. Managable tiered garden with delightful west facing aspect with breathtaking panoramic views towards Silver Howe over the valley. The property has the distinct advantage of an adjoining paddock to the side and rear which extends to just over two acres.

As the property is highly versatile it will suit a variety of buyers whether as a main residence for a family, retirement, second home or holiday let.

The property is situated in a prominent position on the edge of the picturesque and popular village of Grasmere, well known for its scenery and literary connections with William Wordsworth and the Lakeland poets. Dove Cottage, the home of William Wordsworth for many years is approximately 300 metres away. There are an abundance of fell and country walks from the door step.
