Hollace

Torver, Coniston

The sale of Hollace represents an excellent opportunity to purchase a superbly and enviably positioned three bedroom detached bungalow. Situated on a magnificent plot with a delightful private garden, breathtaking panoramic fell and country views across the valley towards Coniston Old Man and the Coniston fells. Originally built in the 1960's Hollace is substantially and well constructed with blocks under a pitched slate roof. The property has been lovingly cared for and benefits from recent internal and external painting, new carpets and new fascias. To be sold with forward bookings and all contents other than a few personal items.

The property could easily be reconfigured, extended and possibly benefit from a loft conversion to create a fabulous dwelling. With adjoining double garage/workshop and garden which surrounds the property. A light and airy property with stunning large picture windows to the front providing amazing and prominent country views across the well established garden.

The property will suit a variety of buyers as it has been enjoyed in the past as both a family residence and retirement property. Currently being used as a holiday let with The Coppermines and Lakes Cottages.

Torver is a small rural hamlet set within the Lake District National Park approximately 1.75 miles south of the popular village of Coniston which provides a wide variety of amenities including shops, petrol station, churches and school. Torver is just west of Coniston Water a popular spot for visitors of The Lakes as the area's third largest lake. Made famous for its connections with Donald Campbell, John Ruskin and Arthur Ransome. To the west of the village stand the imposing Coniston Fells; Coniston Old Man, Wetherlam and Swirl Howe. Paths to Coniston Old Man and Dow Crag are easily accessible with a variety of country walks from the door step. The central Lakes are easily accessible, it is also convenient for the busy market town of Ulverston and transport routes on the A590 trunk road providing good access to the M6. There are two pubs and a small deli in Torver (5 minutes walk) and the village of Coniston is a 30 minutes walk away with a choice of popular Lakeland pubs, the village brewery and local shops.
